REQUESTS FOR MONEY

Parishioners attending Sunday Mass are sometimes approached and asked for money by people in the parking lot. Please be aware that many of these people are professional scammers. Treat them with respect but use your discretion. Suggest that they contact our parish St. Vincent de Paul for assistance if they are in genuine need.

A NEW MUSICAL NOTE

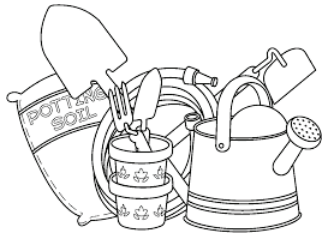

A new cantor, Laurel Tubman, has joined the St. Clement Music Ministry. She will join cantor Anthony Faure at the 11:30 Sunday morning Mass. Together they will work to enhance the music at our parish "High Mass".

Welcome Laurel !

BEAUTIFUL GARDENS

Many remark on the beautiful gardens in front of the church, chapel, office and rectory. They are tended by faithful volunteers who wish to remain anonymous. You will often find them at work as early as 6:00 in the morning. We want to thank them for their tireless efforts. A cheque has been issued to your treasure in heaven!

PLEASE REGISTER

Once again, we encourage all who attend Mass at St. Clement to register formally with the parish. Pick up a box of Sunday Offering Envelopes. The first envelope in the box is your registration form. Fill it in and drop it into the regular collection the following Sunday. Registration is especially important when requesting sacramental celebrations for yourselves or for your children. Those needing letters of recommendation from the church should also be registered. And most important ... your presence among us in a blessing. We want to know who you are!

LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY

Life Chain is a prayerful and peaceful testimony to the sanctity of human life and the harm of abortion. Participants gather at locations across North America for one hour to pray and stand in silent witness. It's our YES to the culture of life and our NO to the culture of death. Join us at the corner of Burnhamthorpe and the West Mall on Sunday, September 30th from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m.
