LOTS OF CHANGES – BE PATIENT

A change of pastors is always unsettling. It will take time for our newly appointed pastor, Father Tim Hanley, to feel at home in St. Clement Parish. Even simple things like turning on the lights and unlocking the doors have to be learned by trial and error. It can be a daunting experience for a new priest. Be patient and show him the warm welcome that makes our parish community such a wonderful place.

NEIGHBOURHOOD CHANGES

Monsignor Paul Zimmer is retiring after 17 years as Pastor of St. Clement Parish and 47 years as a priest. But his retirement isn't the only change in our local area. New pastors have been appointed to the following parishes: Nativity of our Lord, Sts. Martha and Mary Parish, and St. Ambrose. Wednesday, June 26th is the official "Move Day" in the Archdiocese of Toronto.
