THE PRAYER OF ST. MICHAEL

At the suggestion of His Eminence Cardinal Collins, we have been praying the Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel every Sunday at the close of the General Intercessions, and every weekday after the closing prayer of the Mass. The St. Michael prayer is relatively new in the history of the Church. It was composed by Pope Leo XIII and included in the 1886 "Prayers After Mass" which were added and required to be said after all Low Masses in the Latin Rite. Don't know the words? You will find the prayer inside the back cover of your hymnal.

2022 DONATION TAX RECEIPTS

Donation Tax Receipts for the year 2022 will be issued and mailed through the Archdiocese of Toronto Chancery Office. They should be posted during the final week of January. If you have questions or concerns, please contact the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE SUNDAY ARCHDIOCESAN CELEBRATION

February 12th is Marriage Sunday in the Archdiocese of Toronto. Auxiliary Bishop Vincent Nguyen will preside at a special Mass in St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica at 2:30 p.m. All married couples will have an opportunity to renew their vows. And couples celebrating milestone anniversaries (25th, 30th, 50th or 60+) will receive a special blessing. Those wishing to attend are asked to register online at www.archtoronto.org/marriage

COMMUNION FOR THE MOBILITY CHALLENGED

A number of parishioners have mobility challenges and find it difficult to come forward to receive Holy Communion. We encourage you to sit toward the front, on the organ side of the church. Deacon Milan or one of the priests will bring communion to your seat. Don't be afraid to give a little wave to catch his attention!

HANDICAP PARKING

After repaving the parking lot, we set aside four Handicap Parking Spaces at the back of the Church. They allow mobility challenged parishioners to park near the elevator entrance. By law, anyone using these designated spaces must have an official, government issued Handicap Permit. It should be displayed prominently in the front window of your vehicle. Those who park without a permit will be ticketed by the Parking Authority.

BLESS YOURSELF

When you enter the church, please remember to bless yourself with Holy Water. This simple gesture is a reminder of your Baptism, the sacrament by which you were united to Christ and the Church. Only the baptized can celebrate the Eucharist and receive Jesus in Holy Communion. In a certain sense, blessing yourself with Holy Water is your ticket to Mass!

GENUFLECT – BEND YOUR KNEE

Before you take your place in the church remember to genuflect. Bend your knee to the ground and acknowledge the presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. Genuflection is an act of faith, and a visible acknowledgement of Jesus as Lord. Those unable to genuflect, because of age or mobility challenges, should at the very least turn and bow toward the Tabernacle.

COLDEST NIGHT OF THE YEAR ALERT

Calling all parish teens! Join the Saint Clement Youth Group as they take part in the Coldest Night of the Year 2023, a 5K fundraising walk-a-thon that raises funds for the St. Felix Centre downtown. It's a great way to see our faith in action and support the hungry, hurt and homeless in our community. The walk will take place on Sunday, February 26 at 3:30pm in our local neighbourhood. To join us, to donate or to get more information, contact Jean Rebello at saintclementyouthgroup@gmail.com.

WEEKDAY MASS INVITATION

We all know that Catholics are obliged to attend Mass on Sundays. It's the solemn affirmation of our communion with Christ and one another. But many Catholics also attend Mass each and every day. They start each new day in communion with Jesus. Mass is celebrated at St. Clement from Monday to Saturday at 8:15 in the morning. Retired? Working from home? Free during the day? Consider making weekday Mass part of your routine.

MISSING AND MISSED

CANTORS

Our 11:30 Mass cantor couple (Laurel Tubman & Anthony Faure) have been a blessing to St. Clement Parish. But beginning this weekend Laurel will be missing in action. She is off to Scotland for a six date-tour with the band Ashara. They will visit Glasgow, Bathgate, Perth and the Celtic Connections Festival. Their new single "My Love Sings Like A Lintie" is available for streaming on all platforms, and the video is up on YouTube now.

EVERYBODY NEEDS A HOME

Join us for a 90 minute in-person presentation on homelessness and the need for affordable housing in Etobicoke. Wednesday, February 1, 2023 at 7:00 p.m. All Saints Kingsway Anglican Church, 2850 Bloor Street West, Toronto. For more information contact Cora: (416-894-6590) or info@eculinks.ca.

NEW BEGINNINGS – ONLINE BEREAVEMENT SESSION

WHO IS IN CHARGE?

His Eminence Thomas Cardinal Collins is the Archbishop of Toronto. He's the ultimate spiritual and administrative authority in the Archdiocese of Toronto. The Archbishop has four Auxiliary Bishops to assist in shepherding the flock: Bishop John Boissonneau (Northern Region), Bishop Vincent Nguyen (Eastern Region); Bishop Robert Kasun (Central Region), and Bishop Ivan Camilleri (Western Region). The Cardinal delegates his administrative authority to Father Edward Curtis (Chancellor of Spiritual Affairs) and Mr. John Mulhall (Chancellor of Temporal Affairs).
